

Now that you have a home page, how do you put it on the Web?

- Through your employer's computer
- Through an Internet service provider (ISP)
For a list of ISPs for your location anywhere in the world, see The List:
<http://thelist.com/>
- Choosing an ISP
 - Ask your co-workers and friends about ISPs they use
 - Some charge more
 - Some are more reliable
 - Questions to ask ISPs:
 - Setup charges?
 - Point-to-Point Protocol (PPP) or Serial Line Internet Protocol (SLIP) charge for software and applications?
 - Monthly fee (hours per month)?
 - Number of e-mail addresses allowed?
 - Cost for extra e-mail addresses?
 - WWW space provided?
 - Questions ISPs will ask you:
 - Machine type
 - RAM Memory
 - Operating system and version
 - Modem type and speed
